Story Analysis The Chac Mool has an indigenous figure, bad smell,
yellow skin and an ugly face with a weird smile.
His personality is very dominant, imposing his will above Filiberto's.
He acts like an animal being very violent with the protagonist despite needing him to genres of short fiction. Pensé en According to Mayan mythology, Chac was armed with an axe which he used to strike the clouds. Chac Mool Short Story Summary - ecoblossoms.in Filiberto discovers that in all this moisture, the stone idol seems to be turning into flesh — a rain god coming to life. Slowly, the Chac Mool turns Filiberto into his slave.... The story plays a lot with the relationship between the past and the present, particularly in regard to Mexico's history. Chac Mool - Multo (Ghost) With a strident laugh, the Chac Mool reveals how he was discovered by Le Plongeon, and put, physically, in contact with men of other symbols. His spirit has lived in pitcher and storm, naturally; his stone is something else, and to have taken it from its hiding place is artificial and cruel. I think that Chac Mool will never forgive it. (Carlos Fuentes)

Chac Mool | Short Story Collection Chacmool (also spelled chac-mool) is the term used to refer to a particular form of pre-Columbian Mesoamerican sculpture depicting a reclining figure with its head facing 90 degrees from the front, supporting itself on its elbows and supporting a bowl or a disk upon its stomach.
