 Chemical Equations And Reactions Test Question 12. Represent each of the following word equations with a balanced chemical equation. a) Disilane gas (Si_2H_6) undergoes combustion to form solid silicon dioxide and water. b) Solid aluminum hydride is formed by a combination reaction of its two elements. Chemical reactions and equations class 10 test
 Chemical reactions have the same number of atoms before the reaction as after the reaction. Balancing chemical equations is a basic skill in chemistry and testing yourself helps retain important information. This collection of ten chemistry test questions will give you practice in how to balance chemical reactions. Balancing Equations Chemistry Test Questions
 In a chemical equation, the coefficients tell you the number of molecules of each reactant used, and the number of molecules of each product made. $2\text{Mg} + \text{O}_2 \rightarrow 2\text{MgO}$

 Good job! You completed the quiz, so you've seen examples of the different types of chemical reactions. If you're still a bit shaky on how to tell the types of reactions apart or if you just want more examples, you can review the main reaction types. If you're ready to try another quiz, see how familiar you are with the units of measurement.
