Accounting for the Microcomputer User

Running a small, medium or large size business today has never been more demanding. The complexities involved in record keeping, accounting, tax, and other management tasks take up significant resources and time. And with profits always in mind, finding ways to stay competitive and building a robust set of systems, it can seem all too hard to invest the time required to optimise those accounting and management software solutions. In our experience most business owners or managers are simply not aware that there are better solutions in the marketplace. The hidden losses in any business occur when staff are performing tasks that are labor intensive involving hours of manual work in order to produce a result. Often these procedures can be streamlined or enhanced with the right solution and could repay the investment with just one area improved in your business! When you buy the book don't forget to register your book for the free bonuses. Details inside the book.

It's a common question but what makes a successful entrepreneur? Of course, this question starts a whole conversation about the definition of success. It's my belief that success isn't just about making money. Most people start a business for the freedom they expect it to give to them. The cold hard reality is that most entrepreneurs end up working longer hours and for a lot less than a typical wage. Why would any sane person work for less money, work much longer hours and have way less freedom than they probably had in a day job? The reason is they have a much bigger vision for their future than the average person. So why if someone works harder than an average worker then why doesn't every entrepreneur become massively successful? What is the secret that helps the budding entrepreneur become successful? It's probably a clique but there is a formula to it.;The challenge is that there are plenty of mad scientists out there selling you their secret formula. Often it really only works for them or a few followers. Why? Because they probably got lucky along the way. There are no real shortcuts to success, of course, there are exceptions to the rule.;It's called luck or being at the right place at the right time. ;But often even the overnight success stories actually have a hard-luck backstory and years of failure and frustration. This book is about the process, strategy, and implementation of your ideas.;The 5 stages are our way of showing you a viable success path and will help you understand the mindset you need to develop to achieve your definition of success.; You may be tempted to diagnose yourself at one stage and skip the stages prior.;The reality is that often problems and challenges occur due to lack of fundamentals. The study provides an overview of relevant legislation and policy in South Africa, pre- and post- 1994, as well as a review of international research that reveals global trends in small media development. It sketches the distribution of the sector in South Africa, revealing the topography of service providers and key stakeholders. The report identifies the interests that are common to small independent and community media groupings and examines ways in which the sustainability of these organisations can be promoted. Providing a range of pertinent data, analysis and information, this study will be invaluable for anyone wishing to engage effectively with the small media sector. The Media Development and Diversity Agency (MDDA) was established to direct funding and support to the small media sector in the interests of deepening South Africa's young democracy. The principal objective of this study is to assist the MDDA in its important and complex work.

You have a residential investment property. Perhaps you are already renting it out. But are you doing it like a pro and do you know how to maximise your return from it? In this book, property management expert David Beattie distils two decades of experience into easy-to-implement steps and shows you how to manage your property like a professional landlord. His goal is to help you make more money in less time and with fewer hassles, by showing you how to run your property investment like a business; navigate and comply with South African rental laws with ease; attract, screen, place and keep high-quality tenants; ensure successful and consistent rent collection; and maintain your property with the least effort and money. The book also includes templates for all the documents the prospective landlord needs.

This book describes how those individuals who are often most marginalised in postcolonial societies draw on age-old, non-western knowledge systems to adapt to the hardships characteristic of unequal societies in transformation. It highlights robust indigenous pathways and resilience responses used by elders and young people in urban and rural settings in challenging Southern African settings (South Africa, Namibia, Lesotho and Swaziland) to explain an Indigenous Psychology theory. Flocking

(rather than fighting, fleeing, freezing or fainting) is explained as a default collectivist, collaborative and pragmatic social innovation to provide communal care and support when resources are constrained, and needs are par for the course. Flocking is used to address, amongst others, climate change (drought and energy use in particular), lack of household income and securing livelihoods, food and nutrition, chronic disease (specifically HIV / AIDS and tuberculosis), barriers to access services (education, healthcare, social welfare support), as well as leisure and wellbeing. The book further deliberates whether the continued use of such an entrenched socio-cultural response mollifies citizens and decision-makers into accepting inequality, or whether it could also be used to spark citizen agency and disrupt longstanding structural disparities.

Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject Business economics - Offline Marketing and Online Marketing, grade: A, Marymount University, language: English, abstract: The general objective of the study is to find out if there is any effect of advertising on consumer 'buying' of accounting services. In a quest to achieve this objective, the following specific objectives are set: First, to determine if there is any relationship between consumer consciousness and advertising. Second, to find out if there is any relationship between advertisement and consumer opinion. And third, to find out if consumer consciousness and consumer opinion have impact on purchasing power. Founded in 2017, Professionals in Business Group (PIBG) is a black owned, South African accounting firm targeting mainly small and medium enterprises with the salient objective of providing them with affordable and organized financial reporting structures. PIBG endeavors to provide this much-needed service to small and medium institutions at the most cost effective way possible without compromising the quality of their work output. According to Thubelihle Maphosa, Financial Accountant and founder of PIBG, much growth potential is lost in small businesses because of failure to manage funds in an operational, tactical and strategic manner and that is where PIBG comes in, as the key to unlocking growth potential Professionals in Business Group uses most major accounting software in the market namely Pastel Accounting, QuickBooks and Palladium Accounting. Nonetheless, PIBG leadership believes that this software are not necessarily in harmony with the company's identity of simplicity to serve even the smallest of clientele. In a nutshell, the scope of these software is too big and not usable in its entirety to small businesses and in response to this, PIBG is building a tailored Accounting software PIB-X Accounting and Payroll 'Accounting made simple'.
