What to remember : * Make a good Resume/CV Don't compress everything into one page, do 2 pages if needed * When you go to your Open day or Assessment Day, go in a good business attire. Girls put on some make up and attach your hair in a bun. * Make a good first impression. Say something to the recruiter, at least tell them that you're thankful for their time. Practice in front of the mirror ;) * SMILE * Be enthusiastic while doing your group exercises. Don't focus on results, focus on having good communication skills. HAVE FUN ! * Don't interrupt people while they are talking. I insist on this one ! * Listen to others and only speak if needed. When you speak think about it before saying it (if it's possible), say something that makes sense about the situation that was presented. * Don't be afraid to look the recruiters in their eyes, they are not monsters ;) * It is better to try to get an invitation for an Assessment Day * Do a lot of researching on the web. * If you truly want to work for Emirates (Etihad/Qatar) never give up, do your best and be prepared ! GOOD LUCK ! NEVER GIVE UP ON YOUR DREAM

ARE YOU READY TO DISCOVER THE TRUTH ABOUT THE SECRET ELIMINATION PROCESS? Do you know that airlines use hidden surveillance and undercover officers to eliminate 90% of unsuspecting candidates as early as possible? and do you know that you are up against a strict set of hidden criterion and secret discriminations? These are just a few of the tactics that airlines use to make sneaky elimination choices during the selection process. By understanding the process from the inside, you can avoid being slaughtered by the underhand tactics, and you can tip the balance of power in your favour, so that you become the one who is doing the screening, not the airline. Within this guide, you will not find pages of information informing you about the duties, history and roster structures, and neither will you find average advice that will have you looking and sounding like everyone else. This book is raw and will take you behind the scenes to reveal secrets that airlines don't want you to know. The information is universal, revealing how candidates are screened and hired all across the world, from the largest international carriers to the smallest national operators. The information is timeless, so you will not find outdated or irrelevant advice, and, most importantly, it is uncensored. For the first time, you be shown how to avoid the common traps and pitfalls, and the true reasons why no airline will ever tell you why you were unsuccessful in your pursuit. Whether you are a seasoned applicant who is finding yourself frustrated at another unsuccessful attempt or are a new candidate looking forward to your first interview, the insider secrets and step by step guidance will give you a huge lead over the competition.

Do you know what you might be asked during your interview and what you will say to create a good impression? Generic answers such as: I'm a workaholic, a perfectionist and I always try to please everyone are no longer going to cut it and neither is memorising lists of answers. In fact, memorising answers and trying to prepare for every possible scenario will work against you. Not only do you run the risk of sounding like a robot, with a boring and flat delivery, you are also more likely to be caught off guard by the aggressive and fast-paced style of questioning. This groundbreaking book focuses exclusively on preparing you for the final section of the cabin crew interview selection process - The 2 on 1 interview. The answers you provide during this crucial stage of the interview can make or break your success. Your answers need to be detailed and yet concise thus eliminating the need for the interviewers to probe further with follow up questions - this book will show you the correct method to formulating such answers thus enabling you to devise your own well constructed answers at any given moment. You will learn why airlines use trick questions, what the recruiter is secretly screening for and how to spot one so that you can avoid being culled by their deceptive tactics. Subsequently, you will find sample answers to the most frequently asked interview questions. The questions cover a variety of topics and will give you a deeper insight into what is considered to be well constructed answers. Here is just a selection of the questions that are demonstrated...
