New English Grammar for ESL Students

Orient Blackswan

Modern English Structures is a clear and accessible text that follows a structural approach to teaching basic English grammar. The book is divided into three parts: what a sentence constituent is, what a sentence constituent does, and where a sentence constituent goes—Form, Function, and Position. The objective of the book is to bring students to a better understanding of sentence constituents and sentence structures, providing them with appropriate terminology to discuss these forms and relationships. This second edition has been revised and updated throughout. The accompanying Modern English Structures Workbook parallels the text and provides useful training both in memorization and in higher-order thinking skills.

Based on extensive research, Grammar and Beyond ensures that students study accurate information about grammar and apply it in their own speech and writing. Student's Book, Level 3 is the main component of Grammar and Beyond. In each unit, students study the grammar in a realistic text and through charts and notes informed by a billion-word corpus of authentic language. The exercises provide practice in reading, writing, listening, and speaking, making this a complete course. Students learn to avoid common mistakes, based on an extensive corpus of learner language. Each unit concludes with a Grammar for Writing section, in which students apply the grammar in an extended writing task.

What are word classes? How can we recognize them? What role do they play in regards to punctuation? Grammar in Theory and in Practice was written for those who want straight answers, in plain English, to these crucial, yet rarely asked, questions. This essential guide empowers students to identify parts of speech rapidly, to employ punctuation marks confidently, and to examine syntax precisely, in four popular GCSE texts: Lord of the Flies, Animal Farm, Frankenstein, and 1984. Grammatical categories are neatly defined in the glossary, and each chapter is packed with practical and demanding exercises, testing your knowledge of nouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, conjunctions, and prepositions. Topics range from the relatively simple, such as common pronoun errors or subject-verb agreement problems, to the somewhat complex, such as appositives, participles, or rhetorical devices. At the end of the course, there is a large punctuation section that revises the usage of commas, colons, semicolons, hyphens, and apostrophes.

Coming of age and lost innocents in the early 50's. A tale of teenage romance, tragedy, betrayal and adventures of a young Marine awaiting his 18th birthday so he can be shipped to Korea. Reminiscent of J. D. Salinger's Catcher In The Rye except Never Kiss An Angel hero Ken Meers makes Holden Caulfield priest like in comparison. Carpetbag author Harold Robins would have loved Ken Meers fumbling sex scenes. This book has it all: Death, heroism, history, humor, sex and friendships. Destined to be a classic Myers teaches us what it was like to be a teenager in the 1950s. Beginning in Indianapolis the book takes the reader to Yorktown, Virginia for Marine Barracks guard duty, the steamy side of Norfolk that any old time sailor or Marine will relate to. The final chapters of hitching hiking across the United States are a story unto itself. Staging regiment at Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, California, a squad liberty in Los Angeles and the troopship that will take replacements to Korea is a great final. A stunning epilogue. Also an invitation that has never been done in the history of book writing. Women will also enjoy this book.
