 You dream of making your presence really count in the lives of others, but you don't know where--or how--to start. You want to be remembered as a woman who scattered kindness to everyone she knew, but you feel like your busy schedule constantly gets in the way. In this practical and deeply touching guide--inspired by her book Reach Out, Gather In--popular author Karen Ehman gives you 101 actionable ideas you can implement today to truly make a difference in the lives of other people. Make Their Day is filled with creative ideas to connect with your family and friends on a deeper level throughout the year. This book will help you develop habits of kindness, reconnect with friends and family, and make encouraging people a priority. You'll be able to put these ideas into action in real time with everyone in your life--even if hospitality doesn't come naturally to you or you don't think you have time. Let's outshine the negativity and hatred in our world, and reach out to others with love, just as God intended.

So ticked off you're at a loss for words? 101 Ways to Flip the Bird provides 101 creative ways to express exactly how you feel. Arm yourself with the perfect bird for every occasion: Some jerk cut you off in traffic? Opt for the Classic Flip, also appropriate when protesting a bad call by a referee (see page 2). Interrupted by a rude coworker? Try the Glasses Adjuster, subtle enough to use during a business meeting (see page 26). A joker makes a snide remark about your haircut? Cup a Bird behind your ear and flip them Sorry, I'm Deaf (see page 66). Your cheap friend is hitting you up for money again? Pull Here, I've Got Something For You out of your pocket (see page 38). First date boring you half to death with inane chatter? Amuse yourself with the Thinker, a simple and pensive Bird to the chin (see page 64).

Looking expensive and glamorous on a budget is not a matter of money. It's a skill, and--like any other skill--it can be learned. In this invaluable book, style author Chiara Giuliani explains in her breezy and entertaining way how getting a polished look and achieving a chic allure is mostly a matter of know-how, sharing priceless tips that will allow you to achieve a top-star appearance while remaining on-budget. You'll learn the most effective "luxury skills" to (1) pick out stunning-looking but inexpensive items that will make you look pure luxe, (2) pick out top-quality pieces without paying a fortune for them, (3) get sensational-looking grooming without spending a high amount, and (4) develop mood, poise, and behavior in tune with the luxurious-looking lady you are going to be. All of these skills can be learned with simple and straightforward technical advice, and in this book, you'll learn how. You'll learn the cheats not only to become an attentive shopper but also to pick out what flatters your figure--as, when it comes to looking expensive, picking out the design most suitable to your body shape is essential. You'll learn the tips and hints to polish your look and poise, acquiring attitude and manners that make a woman unmistakably high class. Your newly achieved mood will soon become part of your personality--even if you are not rich, or classy, or sophisticated by birth. And you'll soon be amazed at how much better you will feel not only in your clothes but also in your relationships, both personal and professional. You will feel fulfilled in many aspects of your life, and more self-confident as well. You will soon achieve outstanding results that will infuse your whole style--and lifestyle. And you will soon become the beautiful, charming, and sophisticated lady of your dreams.

Minimalism meets DIY in an accessible guide to household waste reduction. We all know how important it is to reduce our environmental footprint, but it can be daunting to know where to begin. Enter Kathryn Kellogg, who can fit all her trash from the past two years into a 16-ounce mason jar. How? She starts by saying “no” to straws and grocery bags, and “yes” to a reusable water bottle and compostable dish scrubbers. In 101 Ways to Go Zero Waste, Kellogg shares these tips and more, along with DIY recipes for beauty and home; advice for responsible consumption and making better choices for home goods, fashion, and the office; and even secrets for how to go waste free at the airport. “It’s not about perfection,” she says. “It’s about making better choices.” This is a practical, friendly blueprint of realistic lifestyle changes for anyone who wants to reduce their waste. Make Their Day Maximum Press (FL)

In her second compilation of published writing, Brianna Wiest explores pursuing purpose over passion, embracing negative thinking, seeing the wisdom in daily routine, and becoming aware of the cognitive biases that are creating the way you see your life. This book contains never before seen pieces as well as some of Brianna's most popular essays, all of which just might leave you thinking: this idea changed my life.

"A compendium of ideas generated by folks with disabilities, their families and those who support them ... This plain language and graphics text is being used in self-advocate groups, classrooms and by individuals and facilitators of various kinds ... This new edition is slightly revised ... This collection of ideas is based on conversations with people with disabilities, their friends, families, neighbours and networks about what had been successful for them as they expanded and deepened their networks. We know a circle of friends ensures more safety, that people will be healthier and happier and that they and their communities will be more resilient. It's now time to engage in the conversations about how to make sure it happens - and it turns out to be a conversation full of joy, success and great examples of leadership on all levels."--
