Detta är, som alltid hos Cartarescu, en roman om Bukarest, en både drömd och verklig stad. Runt omkring i staden ligger jättelika underjordiska solenoider, magnetiska spolar som får hus, människor och föremål att levitera.

Parallellt med berättelsen om staden möter vi en enkel landsbygdslärare, författarens alter ego, som rör sig i en drömlig, surrealistisk och hypnotisk verklighet.

Korean Made Simple 2 Philip Allan

How do you deal with problems? Find out in this bold, humorous, and surprisingly insightful picture book that personifies "problems" as creatures, and skillfully teaches readers (big and small!) how to handle one when it appears. Have you ever met a problem? They come in all shapes and sizes, and can pop up at the most inconvenient times. But you should know some things about problems that will help you make them disappear...

This picture book's original take on managing emotions, and emphasis on communication, will help little ones and grown-ups alike navigate their peskiest problems. THE PROBLEM WITH PROBLEMS is filled with social-emotional learning-based advice for every kind of situation, wrapped lovingly in the lyrical prose of award-winning children's poet Rachel Rooney.

Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, everyone is familiar with the tired clichés: women are bad drivers and are not good with money; only guys play video games and they give bad directions. Dan Abrams tackles the toughest case of his career in Man Down. Drawing on years of legal experience and research studies, Abrams explains step-by-step why women are better than men in just about every way imaginable, from managing money to flying planes to living longer. Abrams uses his trademark charm to get his point across without opining on the issue himself. Chock-full of fun facts and conversation starters, this book may not end the debate of men versus women, but it will definitely make it more interesting. Praise for Man Down: "a provocative collection of bite-size pro-women essays" -Wall Street

Journal "compelling, controversial" - Glamour "I've always liked Dan Abrams. And now that he's charmingly admitted what we all knew anyway, I like him even more!" -Liz Smith

 "Being kissed by Karl Jager was devastating. And beautiful. War makes you do dangerous things." Hanna Mendel liked to know what was going to happen next. She was going to be a famous concert pianist. She was going to wear her yellow dress to the dance on Saturday night. But she didn't plan on her street being turned into a ghetto. She didn't plan on being rounded up and thrown in a cattle truck. She didn't plan on spending her sixteenth birthday in Auschwitz, in a wooden barrack with 200 other prisoners. Most of all, Hanna didn't plan on falling in love with the wrong boy. What happens when a Jewish girl falls in love with the German son of the camp commander? Award-winning Australian author Suzy Zail's young adult fiction book, The Wrong Boy, paints a story of identity, romance, hate and loyalty alongside the historical backdrop of the Holocaust. This gripping novel about a teenage girl coming to terms with first love amid the confronting realities of a war-torn world will leave readers wanting more. Short-listed in the Older Reader's category of the 2013 Children's Book Council of Australia Book of the Year Awards "A compelling picture of life in a prison camp from the point of view of a determined but naïve teenage girl. Recommended." - Aussie Reviews "Four stars ... From its opening page, the reader will feel empathy and heartache for those who suffered during this violent era." - Read Plus "A roller-coaster ride ... This is a must read for any teenager or adult interested in the past, the tragedy of war or what happens when humans believe they are superior." - Kids Book Review "Compelling reading ... Zail uses a deft hand." - Buzz Words magazine "An addictive read, well-written and, in spite of the horror, warm-hearted." - - Around the Bookshops

This edited book provides professionals in the field of English Language Teaching (ELT) with a situated and culturally-responsive account of diversity and inclusion in English language education, from primary to higher education and in a wide range of settings. The volume focuses on three overlapping areas: interculturality, special education needs, and gender. The chapters in each section seek to help readers reflect on the opportunities and challenges of diversity as a step towards inclusive practices, and raise awareness of critical topics across the curriculum and beyond by engaging in wider social issues. This book will be of interest to language teachers and teacher trainers, as well as scholars working in applied linguistics, higher education, intercultural studies, and related fields.
