Resin jewellery first started in the US around 6 years ago and has now become one of the fastest-growing trends in jewellery making. The technique is very simple - you simply mix the two-part resin together and pour into a bezel or pendant. Rings, pendants, brooches, cufflinks, hairpins and bracelets are all easy to make and look incredibly professional when done. In this inspiring book, well-known crafter Sara Naumann shows you just how easy and quick resin jewellery is to make, using minimal equipment and readily available products, and provides over 50 fabulous projects for you to try. You can add numerous items to the resin to achieve different effects. You can place paper in the bezels to act as a background to the resin - such as old book paper, map paper, scrapbook paper and photographs. Paper can also be painted, stencilled, or layered with washi tape before being coated with resin. Try sheet music for a vintage vibe, or origami papers for a fresh, contemporary look. In addition, you can also immerse various items in the resin before it cures, such as dried flowers and leaves, feathers, shells, beads and charms, or try adding glitter, coloured inks, nail polish and virtually anything else you can think of. The versatility of resin jewellery is awe-inspiring, providing papercrafters as well as jewellery-makers with all the skills and inspiration they need to design and make their own stunning pieces.

Quilling is considered as an ancient art form and it is still being practiced today.

This is sometimes called the paper filigree, this is an art form that involves paper strips that are rolled, shaped, and glued together to create very decorative designs. The rolled paper is wound around the quill that creates a basic coil shape. The paper will be glued at its tip and the coil will then be shaped, the shaped coils will then be arranged to form flowers, leaves, and other ornamental patterns that can also be similar to ironwork; this is the basic way on how to do quilling Nowadays, paper quilling is still alive and well. People who practice this kind of artwork are called "quillers". Quillers teach young ladies on how to do quilling, as a part of their income, hobby, interest, or even do this for leisure. Doing this art is no longer classified as an "upper class" art since ordinary people can also do this. The art suddenly became the people's art form and the beauty they create is always expanding and innovated. The said craft easily became popular because of its low cost of materials. It is often used to make an invitation for wedding, birth announcements, scrapbook pages, and different storage boxes. I will show you a step by step guide on how to create animal quilling masterpieces. Happy Quilling!
