The National 5 Engineering Science course provides progression mainly from the craft, design, engineering and graphics experiences and outcomes. It also builds on some science experiences and outcomes, prior learning in mathematics and numeracy and aspects of technological developments in society.

National 5 Engineering Science This led him to not only write the National 5 Engineering Science Study Guide, but also the Higher one for Bright Red Publishing. Originally from the small town of Bonnybridge in the Central Belt, this teaching path took him to Aberdeen, and eventually onto Aberdeenshire where he now happily lives with his wife and two boys.
