Just those three letters. The next day, I received another note. It too contained a single word: "belongs." A third note, the next day. This time, two words. Four letters. "To me." Ten million dollars, or our daughter would die. And then, there was a knock on my door. A sleek black limousine sat on the curb in front of my house. A driver stood in front of me, and he spoke six words: "It's time to pay your debt." Would you have gotten in? I did. It turns out there is no happily ever after for us.

Wake Up, Alpha May 31 2023 Pen I've seen firsthand the monsters that men turn into when they're hit with the virus. I've been at their bedside in the ER when the Task Force comes and hauls them away. I've heard the stories of women getting kidnapped right off the street, never to be seen again. What I'm unprepared for is the day my best friend Mal goes missing, only to turn up upstate in a mansion, claiming one of the Awakened beasts is her "mate". When I find her, I'm equally unprepared for the broken and brooding alpha male she warns me away from. The one so deranged that the pack's "enforcer" has to regularly drag him home, wrapped up in chains so he doesn't kill someone. He's clearly insane, but there's a fire in his eyes that calls to me, a deep and primal power that tugs at my soul. There's just one other problem. His only memory is of beautiful blue eyes. Blue eyes he can't stop thinking about. Blue eyes that aren't my own - even as our connection grows. I shouldn't let him touch me, but I can't stop. My presence drives him to the very edges of his frayed sanity, and I'm terrified to find out what happens when his restraint finally snaps. Wake Up, Alpha is the second book in the Alpha Compound series, by Anna Fury. This dystopian MF omegaverse romance features a firecracker heroine and destroyed alpha finding their own HEA.

Alpha Girls Jan 27 2023 An unforgettable story of four women who, through grit and ingenuity, became stars in the cutthroat, high-stakes, male dominated world of venture capital in Silicon Valley, and helped build some of the foremost companies of our time. In Alpha Girls, award-winning journalist Julian Guthrie takes readers behind the closed doors of venture capital, an industry that transforms economies and shapes how we live. We follow the lives and careers of four women who were largely written out of history - until now. Magdalena Yesil, who arrived in America from Turkey with $43 to her name, would go on to receive her electrical engineering degree from Stanford, found some of the first companies to commercialize internet access, and help Marc Benioff build Salesforce. Mary Jane Elmore went from the corn fields of Indiana to Stanford and on to the storied venture capital firm IVP - where she was one of the first women in the U.S. to make partner - only to be pulled back from the glass ceiling by expectations at home. Theresia Gouw, an overachieving first-generation Asian American from a working-class town, dominated the foosball tables at Brown (she would later reluctantly let Sergey Brin win to help Accel Partners court Google), before she helped land and build companies including Facebook, Trulia, Imperva, and ForeScout. Sonja Hoel, a Southerner who became the first woman investing partner at white-glove Menlo Ventures, invested in McAfee, Hotmail, Acme Packet, and F5 Networks. As her star was still rising at Menlo, a personal crisis would turn her into an activist overnight, inspiring her to found an all-women's investment group and a national nonprofit for girls. These women, juggling work and family, shaped the tech landscape we know today while overcoming unequal pay, actual punches, betrayals, and the sexist attitudes prevalent in Silicon Valley and in male-dominated industries everywhere. Despite the setbacks, they would rise again to rewrite the rules for an industry they love. In Alpha Girls, Guthrie reveals their untold stories.

Alpha Jan 15 2022 The first time it happened, it seemed like an impossible miracle. Bills were piling up, adding up to more money than I could ever make. Mom's hospital bills. My baby brother's tuition. My tuition. Rent. Electricity. All of it on my shoulders. And I had just lost my job. There was no hope, no money in my account, no work to be found. And then, just when I thought all hope was lost, I found an envelope in the mail. No return address. My name on the front, my address. Inside was a check, made out to me, in the amount of ten thousand dollars. Enough to pay the bills and leave me some left over to live on until I found a job. Enough to let me focus on classes. There was no name on the check, just "VRI Inc.," and a post office box address for somewhere in the city. No hint of identity or reason for the check or anything. No mention of repayment, interest, nothing... except a single word, on the notes line: "You." If you receive a mysterious check, for enough money to erase all your worries, would you cash it? I did. The next month, I received another check, again from VRI Incorporated. It too contained a single word: belong." A third check, the next month. This time, two words. Four letters. "To me." The checks kept coming. The notes stopped. Ten thousand dollars, every month. A girl gets used to that, real quick. It let me pay the bills without going into debt. Let me keep my baby brother in school and Mom's hospice care paid for. How do you turn down what seems like free money, when you're desperate? You don't. I didn't. And then, after a year, there was a knock on my door. A sleek black limousine sat on the curb in front of my house. A driver stood in front of me, and he spoke six words: "It's time to pay your debt." Would you have gotten in? I did. It turns out $120,000 doesn't come free.

Adored By An Alpha Jul 21 2022 Life is perfect for Freya Rose. She has a gorgeous boyfriend, a loving mother... Oh, and her very own stalker... Okay, so maybe Freya's life isn't quite as perfect as she thought. There is more to the picturesque town of Jasper, Alberta than meets the eye. The residents quiet, and laid back demeanors perfectly disguise an extraordinary community of werewolves, vampires, and hunters. When Freya is finally able to see beyond the secrets, she is introduced to a supernatural world full of temptation, power, and love rivals. Freya's relationship with Tristan struggles to make it past all of the lies and secrets, so when a mysterious stranger strolls into her life, will she be able to resist his seductive charms? The biggest question is, how will she react when she discovers that she belongs in this new world, far more than she ever realized. This book contains adult themes, therefore 18+ is advised. This story ends in a cliffhanger, and is then continued in Abandoned By An Alpha. There may be some triggers in this book, ie, stalking, murder, adultery, and hunks that might melt your clothes off. The series as a whole, has a reverse harem feel to it, but Freya does not entertain all of the guys at once. That being said, there are a few scenes where more than one guy is involved, so be prepared. Lastly, if you would like to follow me, I can be found on Facebook (L.P. Dillon) or at Author L.P.Dillon's Divas on Facebook. I'm also on Twitter and Instagram occasionally, and my Freya Rose series can be found on Radish. Ps. I'm sorry that you're hanging by your fingertips on that cliff edge, I'll send one of Freya's guys along to save you soon xxx
