Non-State Actors and Authority in the Global System Jan 27 2021 Traditionally in International Relations, power and authority were considered to rest with states. But recently, in the light of changes associated with globalisation, this has come under scrutiny both empirically and theoretically. This book analyses the continuing but changing role of states in the international arena, and their relationships with a wide range of non-state actors, which possess increasingly salient capabilities to structure global politics and economics.

Mexico Mystique Oct 24 2020 In Mexico Mystique Frank Waters draws us deeply into the ancient but still-living myths of Mexico. To reveal their hidden meanings and their powerful symbolism, he brings to bear his gift for intuitive imagination as well as a broad knowledge of anthropology, Jungian psychology, astrology, and Eastern and esoteric religions. He offers a startling interpretation of the Mayan Great Cycle -- our present Fifth World -- whose beginning has been projected to 3113 B.C., and whose cataclysmic end has been predicted by 2011 A.D.

Globalization or

Regionalization of the American and Asian Car

Industry? Mar 29 2021

The automobile sector is one of the most archetypal global industries and is seen by many as one of the main drivers behind the homogenisation of world markets due to firms' internationalization strategies and the social practices that firms impose. This book argues that this is not entirely the case due to the heterogeneity of firms and the diversity of strategies pursued. It highlights the diversity and forms of internationalization and the preference for regionalization rather than globalization that has occurred over the past decade. This book looks specifically at the American and Asian car industry.

Moon Song May 19 2020

Matthew O'Weary, Irish, sixteen, arrives in a small town in Georgia, along with his mother and sister, joining the American branch of his family. Matt starts school, finds Bree, an old friend, plays baseball and already feels American. But something strange is waiting. Why are there wolves in Peacock Side, a few thousand inhabitants? What is the secret that torments Jonathan Renter, the professor of geology? What's true about the legends of the old Virginia Lane home? Matthew and Bree begin to dig deep into the question, while a series of increasingly strange events slowly begin to upset the entire town. Amid secrets, incredible revelations, terrifying apparitions and disconcerting truths, the shapeless figure of an incomprehensible truth slowly approaches and takes on the dark colors of the icy characters of the supernatural. While the moon inexorably marks the passing of the days, the three embark on a fight against time to stop the machine of Evil that has been irremediably set in motion. And in a deafening succession of events, the past of memory and the most ancestral one of the collective unconscious merge with an obscure, precarious present, where the demonic steps of an elusive creature get closer and closer.

Organizational Culture and Management Jul 01 2021

Changing an organization's culture is important because it can help a business stay competitive, attract top talent, innovative new products or services, and create a positive workplace that promotes collaboration. By creating a strong company culture aligned with your organizational objectives, you can increase employee productivity and therefore, increase overall work output. The majority of workers in the U.S. believe that organizational culture is one of the biggest influencers of their job performance.

Ford and the Global Strategies of Multinationals

Dec 06 2021 Today, the Multinational Enterprise (MNE) is seen as a leading agent in the process of globalization. As they adopt global strategies, MNE's are seen to be creating stronger, deeper and more lasting links amongst countries, thus shifting the balance of power inexorably in their favour, to the detriment of the state. This book interrogates this idea by undertaking a historical analysis of the global strategies of Ford.
