 June 20, 2019 by Essay Writer. Arguably, The First Casualty by Ben Elton presents the character of Captain Shannon as depraved and dehumanised by the effects of WW1, but perhaps the savage nature of war simply brought out a barbarous side to him that had always been there. The novel is based on the proverb 'the first casualty of war is truth', and this is depicted through society's perception of Shannon as a stereotypical brave and selfless soldier, when the truth is that he often ...
